

Attendance Policy

1. General Guidelines

- Employees must adhere to the assigned shift timings and work duration.
- Personal breaks will be deducted from the total work duration, as some employees work split shifts.
- Attendance policies may vary by department or designation

2. Attendance & Pay Policy (Based on Manager Approval):

- Half-Day Pay: Employees must complete a minimum of 150 minutes (2.5 hours) of work.
- Full-Day Pay: Employees must complete a minimum of 270 minutes (4.5 hours) of work.
- The above criteria will be considered only upon manager approval.

3. Leave Adjustments

- If an employee is not present for the full day without prior information, the leave will be automatically adjusted from the leave balance.

4. Penalties for Late Arrival and Early Departure

- Late Arrival: If an employee arrives after the shift start time, penalties may apply since the nature of our work (edtech) requires punctuality.
- Early Departure: If an employee leaves before the shift ends, penalties(LOP/Leave) may apply if not informed or approved.
- Penalties may involve leave adjustment from the balance or Leave Without Pay (LOP) if the absence is uninformed or unapproved.

6. Attendance and Leave Correction

- Any correction requests related to attendance or leave must be approved by Department Allocation Managers/Department Head responsible for session and resource planning.

7. Shift Allocation and Week Offs

- Multiple shifts may be allocated to employees, with different shifts for weekdays and weekends.
- Weekly shift allocation may vary.
- Week-off days and holidays differ across departments and employees.

8. Leave and Compensatory Off

- A department-wise holiday calendar will be shared.
- Compensatory off can be availed within 90 days with prior manager approval.
